Herbert D. (Ley – sounds like “Lee”) Mills is a Senior Tax Specialist (Stakeholder Liaison - Field) assigned to Communication Stakeholder Outreach (CSO), which is part of Communications & Liaison operating unit at the Internal Revenue Service. He has been with the Service for over 28 years, consisting of 11 years as a Revenue Agent in Compliance and the remaining years as a Senior Tax Specialist. As a Revenue Agent, Ley audited Federal Income Tax Returns for various corporations, partnerships, and self-employed individuals. He also served as the VITA (Volunteer Income Tax Assistance) Program Coordinator in Northern Virginia (the program helped over 6,000 taxpayers annually). As a Senior Tax Specialist, Ley works with tax practitioner and professional organizations in providing information to business owners on relevant tax issues. He also served on the District Speakers Bureau. Ley has also been involved in the IRS Central Withholding Agreement (CWA) from 2004 - 2007, working with agents for foreign entertainers and athletes performing in the U.S. And, from 2002 – 2005, he assisted taxpayers, such as foreign students and nonresident aliens in the U.S., U.S. employees working abroad, etc., on various tax questions during the tax season. Ley is a graduate of Gettysburg College, University of Maryland, and Strayer University, earning a Masters degree in Accounting at Strayer. Ley is an avid swimmer and walker. He also plays the guitar at church, does volunteer work as an EMT at a local rescue squad, and teaches First Aid and CPR/AED for the American Heart Association.
